Sudan: Security Situation

Publication date: 11 February 2025

The report is divided into two parts. The first part comprises an overview of the conflict, the major actors as well as the impact of the security situation on the civilian population across the country. It furthermore focuses on the general political and security situation of Sudan as of November 2024, and then addresses the communication and the humanitarian situation at country level, including their implications in terms of quality and quantity of information available to shed light on the issues addressed in the remainder of the report.

The second part of the report maps actors, conflict dynamics as well as security trends, events and major impacts on the civilian population in the different regions of the country. For the purposes of this report, the region denoted as Central comprises Al Jazirah, Sennar, Blue Nile and White Nile states; the region denoted as North comprises Northern and River Nile states; the region denoted as East comprises Gedaref, Kassala and Red Sea states.

In addition, this publication is also available in pdf format.
