Orientation course

Orientation course

Orientation course trainings support learners in preparing for participation in the European Asylum Curriculum (EAC). They provide an introduction to the learning approach, tools, and expectations associated with EUAA training, helping participants engage effectively with the training process.

These trainings aim to ensure that learners are familiar with the structure, methodology, and requirements of EAC modules, enabling them to make the most of their learning experience.

Who this training is for

This training is intended for:

- participants enrolled in EUAA training modules
- professionals new to the European Asylum Curriculum
- learners seeking to understand the training format and expectations

What these trainings cover

Through orientation course trainings, participants develop knowledge and skills related to:

- understanding the structure and components of EAC modules
- navigating the learning environment and tools

- engaging with self-paced and blended learning formats
- understanding assessment and participation requirements
- preparing for active and effective participation in training

These competencies support learners in approaching training in a structured, informed, and confident manner.
