DESCRIPTION

This module aims to provide learners with knowledge and skills related to the identification of indications of statelessness of a person encountered during screening or in the early stages of the asylum procedure.

It introduces the legal concept of statelessness, with a focus on the indications of statelessness and the legal obligation of their identification in accordance with the Screening and the Asylum Procedure Regulation.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the end of this module, the learner will be able to:

Knowledge

1. Explain the general concept of statelessness and who can be affected by it.

2. Describe the legal framework for the early identification and recording of statelessness in screening and registration, and the necessary follow-up steps.

3. Recognise the negative consequences of the failure to identify and record indications of statelessness.

4. Describe and recognise indications of statelessness.

DELIVERY METHOD

This module is delivered entirely online, through self-paced learning.
