Please cite as: EUAA, 'Section 4.13 Statelessness in the asylum context' in EASO Asylum Report 2021, Enero 2022.

Section 4.13 Statelessness in the asylum context

Statelessness is a legal anomaly which affects those who are not considered a national by any state. Lacking any state's protection means stateless persons may not be able to fully realise their fundamental rights, including access to education, health care, housing, employment, social welfare and documentation.

© European Union Agency for Asylum 2026 | Email: info@euaa.europa.eu