Hassan, Baha and Eid: Syrian family successfully relocated from Greece to Lithuania

Hassan, Baha and Eid: the real story of the Syrian family relocated from Greece to Lithuania is the story of so many families fleeing war and persecution.

For Hassan and his family the EU Relocation Programme made the difference. They found their new home in this beautiful Baltic country, and they feel safe and secure.

Hassan works in a poultry factory and soon the whole family will live together in a new apartment.

Hassan and his wife they do have dreams for the future: they want their children to attend school, so that one day, one to become a doctor and the other one an engineer.

Their testimony speaks for itself, and their experience with the EU Relocation Programme passes on a very clear message: Relocation is safe and legal!
