EU Agencies issued report on joint actions to address Trafficking in Human Beings

Press release: EU Agencies issued report on joint actions to address Trafficking in Human Beings

On the occasion of the 8th Anti-Trafficking day (18 October), the European Police College (CEPOL), Europol, Eurojust, The European Union Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA), the European Agency for the Management of Operational Cooperation at the External Borders of the Member States of the European Union (Frontex) and the European Asylum Support Office (EASO), have issued a report on their joint actions in the field of THB.

The report is annexed to the European Commission's "Midterm report on the Implementation of the EU Strategy towards the eradication of Trafficking in Human Beings 2012-2016".

The agencies have also issued a report on their individual actions developed from October 2012 to October 2014 to address THB.
