Dear readers,

Welcome to our second EUAA newsletter of 2022, and what a trimester it has been! As our Executive Director Nina Gregori noted when launching the 2022 Asylum Report, this year was meant to be one of transition for the former EASO to become the fully-fledged European Union Agency for Asylum (EUAA). However, the Russian invasion of Ukraine put paid to that, and is a tectonic shift for Europe. It has forced an acceleration of planned policy and operational changes that have rippled all the way through to the EUAA as well.

Russia's actions have driven over 6.2 million people towards the EU and over 3.7 million have registered under the never-before-used Temporary Protection Directive. The EUAA has adapted its activities to support our Member States and assist those arriving. You can learn more about the EUAA's activities regarding Ukrainians in this edition's special section on the EUAA's Response to Ukraine.

For this edition, we also bring you an interview with Mr. Dirk Van den Bulck, the newly elected Deputy Chair of the Management Board, the details on the launch of the EUAA Asylum Report 2022, and a selection of the most recent developments at the Agency.

We hope you enjoy it!
