Please cite as: EUAA, 'Section 3. EASO transition to the EUAA' in Asylum Report 2022, May 2022.

Section 3. EASO transition to the EUAA

Section 3. EASO transition to the EUAA

“This Regulation establishes a European Union Agency for Asylum (the ‘Agency’). The Agency shall replace and succeed the European Asylum Support Office (EASO), established by Regulation (EU) No 439/2010.…

…shall contribute to ensuring the efficient and uniform application of Union law on asylum in the Member States in a manner that fully respects fundamental rights…

…shall facilitate and support the activities of the Member States in the implementation of the Common European Asylum System (CEAS), including by enabling convergence in the assessment of applications for international protection across the Union and by coordinating and strengthening practical cooperation and information exchange…

…shall improve the functioning of the CEAS, including through the monitoring mechanism referred to in Article 14 and by providing operational and technical assistance to Member States, in particular where their asylum and reception systems are under disproportionate pressure…

…shall be a centre of expertise by virtue of its independence, the scientific and technical quality of the assistance it provides and the information it collects and disseminates, the transparency of its operating procedures and methods, its diligence in performing the tasks assigned to it, and the information technology support needed to fulfil its mandate.”

Infographic with key milestones of easo transition to EUAA

icon for transition of easo to euaa

3.1. From EASO to the EUAA

Read more...

icon for euaa operational support

3.2. Operational support

Read more...

© European Union Agency for Asylum 2026 | Email: info@euaa.europa.eu