1. Actors of persecution or serious harm

COMMON ANALYSIS
Last update: August 2023

Article 6 QD

A wide range of different groups and individuals can be considered as actors of persecution or serious harm in Belgravia. Examples include Belgravia security forces, Blestil armed group, local criminal groups, families, etc. [Security 2024, 1.2., pp. 25-26]

The following subsections highlight the main actors of persecution or serious harm in Belgravia in a non-exhaustive manner.

The individual assessment of international protection needs should take into account the presence and activity of different actors in the applicant's home area and the situation in the areas the applicant would need to travel through in order to reach their home area.

For more information on territorial control and/or presence of the actors of persecution or serious harm listed below, please refer to 4.3.4. Indiscriminate violence under 4.3. Article 15(c) QD: indiscriminate violence in situations of armed conflict.

The contents of this part include:

- 1.1. The Belgravia state actors
- 1.2. Blestil armed group
- 1.3. Other non-State actors
