

4.1. Persons perceived to be opposing the government

Following the fall of the Assad regime in December 2024, this document has been reviewed and updated. Please consult 'Interim Country Guidance: Syria \(2025\)'

COMMON ANALYSIS

Last update: April 2024

This profile refers to different groups viewed by the government as opposition, such as members of anti-government groups, political opposition activists and protesters, and civilians originating from areas associated with opposition to the government.

For guidance regarding other profiles, which may be relevant, see 4.2. Persons who evaded or deserted military service; 4.8. Journalists, other media professionals and human rights activists; and 4.9. Doctors, other medical personnel and civil defence volunteers.

The contents of this section include:

- 4.1.1. Political dissent and opposition in Syria
- 4.1.2. Members of anti-government armed groups
- 4.1.3. Political activists, opposition party members and protesters
- 4.1.4. Civilians originating from areas associated with opposition to the government

© European Union Agency for Asylum 2025 | Email: info@euaa.europa.eu