Country Guidance: Iraq

Publication date: 14 November 2024

The 'Country Guidance: Iraq' represents Member States' joint assessment of the situation in the country of origin in relation to the applicable international and EU legislation on international protection. The guidance note, accompanied by the common analysis, was finalised by the Country Guidance Network of senior policy officials in September 2024 and was endorsed by the EUAA Management Board in November 2024.

In light of the EUAA COI Country Focus report on Iraq (October 2025), the Country Guidance Network, as of November 2025, confirms the ongoing validity of 'Country Guidance: Iraq'.

In addition to this electronic publication, the 'Country Guidance: Iraq' (November 2024) is available in pdf format.

The aim of the country guidance documents is to assist asylum decision-makers and policy-makers in their daily work and to foster convergence in the assessment of applications for international protection and the type of protection granted in the context of the common European asylum system. Member States have an obligation to take into account the common analysis and guidance notes when examining applications for international protection, without prejudice to their competence to decide on individual applications for international protection.

The EUAA country guidance documents are produced in accordance with Article 11 of the EUAA Regulation (Regulation (EU) 2021/2303). Learn more about the methodology and assessment approach of the common analysis and guidance notes in the 'Country Guidance: explained'.
