Profiles at risk of persecution from other actors than the Assad regime (for which the Assad regime was not considered an actor of persecution)

COMMON ANALYSIS

Last update: June 2025

This section covers the situation of persons for which the Assad regime was not considered an actor of persecution.

The regime change has a limited impact on the international protection needs of the profiles under this category. However, this category could also include renewed or increased risk for certain groups such as former members or supporters of the Assad regime.
