

4–5 August 2024: Last days of protests, Hasina flees the country

On 4 August 2024, thousands of protesters took to the streets and ‘engaged in pitched battles’ against police and Awami League supporters, as reported by Prothom Alo.1850 The Daily Star reported on Dhaka and all other major towns turning into ‘battlefields’ between ‘students alongside common people and government forces’.1851 Almost 100 people were killed,1852 in day-long clashes.1853 The Daily Star reported on intense clashes in Jatrabari, ‘in the final days’ of fighting, without specifying a date, where police and security forces shot at protesters from vehicles and helicopters and made use of drones to identify their exact positions. A protester described how bodies were piling up, and stated that ‘[p]olice only stopped shooting at protesters when they ran out of ammunition’.1854 Protest-related deaths were reported, inter alia, in the cities of Dhaka, Feni and Lakshmipur (Chattogram Division).1855 Police and Awami League supporters attacked protesters by firing lethal ammunition in Ashulia (Savar),1856 in Mirpur, and other places in Dhaka,1857 and also clashed with protesters blocking important roads and starting fires in Uttara1858 and also in Bogura 1859 where three died by bullet injuries and 35 more were injured by gunfire, according to Prothom Alo. 1860 Prothom Alo also reported on chases and counter-chases in Munshiganj, between protesters and Awami League supporters, while the police fired teargas. Many protesters, about 40–50 people, were injured by bullets.1861

Awami League supporters attacked protesters with firearms in several areas,1862 including in Cumilla, where armed Awami League supporters reportedly carried out attacks in formations for the second day and fired at protesters from buildings.1863 In Chattogram City, a combined force of police and Awami League members shot at and injured at least 24 people. According to Prothom Alo, Awami League shot several rounds before police arrived at the scene and fired teargas and sound grenades.1864 In Feni, 300–400 Awami League supporters attacked protesters.1865 Eight persons reportedly died1866 and 79 were injured.1867 Awami League supporters also chased and shot at protesters at Dhanmondi Road 27 in Dhaka,1868 in Narsingdi, where they shot at least four individuals blocking an important highway1869 and in Rangpur, where Awami League supporters, including the city councillor, shot at protesters.1870 In Narsingdi and Rangpur, protesters retaliated and lynched their attackers.1871 According to UN OHCHR protesters in Rangpur dragged the local councillor’s body through the streets.1872 Journalists were also reportedly ‘severely beaten’ during clashes in Rangpur, when identified as media personnel.1873

From 4 August 2024 and on, ‘the most serious revenge killings’ against police and Awami League supporters took place, according to UN OHCHR, as the government was ‘increasingly losing control of the country’.1874 In Sirajganj, 22 people were killed1875 including 15 policemen at the Enayetpur police station, and five local Awami League officials alongside a journalist during an attack against an Awami League office in Rayganj.1876 As reported by UN OHCHR, one of the Awami League officials ‘was beaten to death after first being publicly humiliated, by being forced to do squats while holding his ears.’1877 In Shahbagh, several thousand protested, and some chased and clashed with Awami League supporters chanting slogans outside Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujib Medical University. Protesters reportedly went inside the hospital looking for ruling party activists and vandalised 35 vehicles,1878 including an ambulance.1879

Mobile internet was shut down again,1880 and the government declared an indefinite ‘shoot-on-sight’ curfew,1881 and three days of public holiday starting on 5 August 2024.1882 Meanwhile, the student movement announced the programme ‘March on Dhaka’ to take place the next day and called on protesters across the country to march towards the capital.1883

On 5 August 2024, many defied the curfew in the early morning, despite heavy police and military presence.1884 The Daily Star reported on at least a million people marching from different parts of the country, and that hundreds of thousands approached Hasina’s official residence.1885 According to UN OHCHR, the army and security forces were ordered to stop the march by force, but while ‘[t]he police shot and killed many protesters’, the army and BGB ‘largely stood by’ and let them pass. UN OHCHR however noted one case where soldiers shot ‘indiscriminately’ at protesters at Jamuna Future Park, shooting one man to death at a very close range, and thereafter beating protesters with sticks to disperse them.1886

Sources noted a peak in violence on 5 August 2024.1887 UN OHCHR estimated that almost 400 people were killed on this day, many due to government efforts to stop the ‘March on Dhaka’.1888 Police fired at protesters in various places,1889 and ‘indiscriminate’ police fire was reported in Chankharpul in Dhaka Division,1890 and the Dhaka City neighbourhoods of Ashulia,1891 Azampur and on Rampura bridge.1892

Law enforcement also opened fire at protesters assembling outside police stations, including in the Dhaka neighborhood of Jatrabari, killing at least 30 people.1893 UN OHCHR reported that the police stormed out of the station in the afternoon ‘in formation while shooting their rifles and shotguns’, and that they ‘intentionally shot and killed several unarmed protesters at close range’.1894 Police also shot at protesters assembling outside and attacking police stations in Uttara, killing at least 10 people,1895 in the city of Kushtia, killing at least eight people,1896 in the village of Baniachang in Sylhet Division,1897 and in Shibganj (Rajshahi Division).1898 Protesters also attacked a police station in Ashulia (Dhaka Division), by throwing bricks and other objects. Police reportedly responded with ‘indiscriminate’ fire,1899 ‘using military rifles loaded with lethal ammunition’.1900 The police later piled dead bodies into a van and set it on fire.1901 According to UN OHCHR, this was carried out on the order of senior police officials, with the apparent intent to ‘create the false impression that the victims had been killed by protesters’.1902 According to Human Rights Watch, at least one person was burned alive while being handcuffed, and police fatally shot people trying to put out the fire.1903

The army chief decided that the army would not open fire on civilians to enforce the curfew,1904 and informed the prime minister’s office in the afternoon of 5 August 2024 that the army would not be able to prevent protesters from reaching Hasina’s official residence. Just before protesters stormed it, around 14:00, Hasina left the country in a helicopter flying to India.1905 As Hasina escaped, retaliatory violence surged.1906 Many Awami League leaders and activists, as well as their houses, were attacked.1907 Retaliatory violence also targeted the police, media outlets and ‘others perceived as affiliated with the Awami League’. Some religious and indigenous groups were also attacked.1908 Out of 326 deaths recorded by Prothom Alo on 4–6 August 2024, 87 were Awami League supporters and 36 were police.1909 The same source reported on government installations being attacked in 39 districts on 4 August 2024, including ‘[h]ouses of public representatives, Awami League offices, [and] police stations’.1910 The parliament was also stormed1911 and vandalised,1912 as well as the official residence of Hasina.1913 The Zabeer International Hotel in the city of Jashore, reportedly owned by a prominent local Awami League leader,1914 was also set on fire,1915 causing the deaths of 24 people.1916

According to the police, 450 out of 639 police stations were either destroyed or damaged.1917 Crowds attacked and torched police stations in various places. They also killed police officers,1918 including by lynching them.1919 In the Dhaka neighbourhoods of Jatrabari,1920 Uttara, and the Dhaka suburb Ashulia, the bodies of killed police officers were ‘strung up in public places’, as reported by UN OHCHR.1921 On 6–7 August 2024, DMCH received 15 bodies of police officers beaten or shot to death, and some bodies were mutilated.1922 Some police officers continued to shoot at crowds after Hasina left the country; some people, including children, were for example shot during celebration parades.1923

Mobs attacked and torched several media outlets, including Ekattor TV, Somoy TV, ATN Bangla,1924 Channel 24,1925 ATN News TV,1926 and reportedly also DBC News, My TV, Bijoy TV, Gazi TV,1927 and Gaan Bangla TV.1928

More information on the aftermath of the fall of the former government and the violence that followed is available in section 6.1. Public order, crime and mob violence.

1850

Prothom Alo, At least 97 die across country on a day of carnage, 4 August 2024, url

1851

Daily Star (The), A chronicle of the July Uprising, n.d., url

1852

Al Jazeera, How Bangladesh's 'Gen Z' protests brought down PM Sheikh Hasina, 7 August 2024, url

1853

Prothom Alo, At least 97 die across country on a day of carnage, 4 August 2024, url

1854

Daily Star (The), A chronicle of the July Uprising, n.d., url

1855

Prothom Alo, Six Awami League men beaten to death after they open fire, 4 August 2024, url

1856

UN OHCHR, Human Rights Violations and Abuses Related to the Protests of July and August 2024 in Bangladesh, 12 February 2025, url, para. 96; Somoy TV, Massacre in Ashulia: Chilling eyewitness accounts surface, 2 September 2024, url

1857

UN OHCHR, Human Rights Violations and Abuses Related to the Protests of July and August 2024 in Bangladesh, 12 February 2025, url, para. 96; Prothom Alo, What happened across the country Sunday, 5 August 2024, url

1858

Prothom Alo, Demonstrators gain control of street after clashes with police and AL in Azampur, Uttara, 4 August 2024, url; Dhaka Tribune, Protesters, police, Awami League clash in Uttara's Azampur, 4 August 2024, url

1859

Daily Star (The), 93 killed on day of carnage; AL defers Monday's programmes, 4 August 2024, url

1860

Prothom Alo, Police-protesters clashes in Bogura kill 3, 4 August 2024, url

1861

Prothom Alo, Two die from bullet wounds, 50 injured in Munshiganj, 4 August 2024, url

1862

Daily Star (The), 93 killed on day of carnage; AL defers Monday's programmes, 4 August 2024, url

1863

UN OHCHR, Human Rights Violations and Abuses Related to the Protests of July and August 2024 in Bangladesh, 12 February 2025, url, para. 95

1864

Prothom Alo, Clashes at Chattogram, 24 hospitalised with bullet wounds, 4 August 2024, url

1865

UN OHCHR, Human Rights Violations and Abuses Related to the Protests of July and August 2024 in Bangladesh, 12 February 2025, url, para. 212

1866

UN OHCHR, Human Rights Violations and Abuses Related to the Protests of July and August 2024 in Bangladesh, 12 February 2025, url, para. 212; Daily Star (The), 93 killed on day of carnage; AL defers Monday's programmes, 4 August 2024, url

1867

UN OHCHR, Human Rights Violations and Abuses Related to the Protests of July and August 2024 in Bangladesh, 12 February 2025, url, para. 212

1868

Prothom Alo, Awami League men open fire, chase protesters at Dhanmondi Rd 27, 4 August 2024, url; Dhaka Tribune, Dhaka Tribune female journo assaulted in Dhanmondi, 4 August 2024, url

1869

Prothom Alo, Six Awami League men beaten to death after they open fire, 4 August 2024, url

1870

UN OHCHR, Human Rights Violations and Abuses Related to the Protests of July and August 2024 in Bangladesh, 12 February 2025, url, para. 213

1871

Prothom Alo, Six Awami League men beaten to death after they open fire, 4 August 2024, url; Dhaka Tribune, 6 Narsingdi Awami League leaders, activists beaten to death, 4 August 2024, url; Netra News, Claims of sectarian motives in nine Hindu deaths falter under scrutiny, 30 October 2024, url

1872

UN OHCHR, Human Rights Violations and Abuses Related to the Protests of July and August 2024 in Bangladesh, 12 February 2025, url, para. 213

1873

Dhaka Tribune, 4 killed, several injured in Rangpur clash, 4 August 2024, url

1874

UN OHCHR, Human Rights Violations and Abuses Related to the Protests of July and August 2024 in Bangladesh, 12 February 2025, url, para. 212

1875

Prothom Alo, At least 97 die across country on a day of carnage, 4 August 2024, url; Bdnews24.com, Anti-government protesters attack AL office in Raiganj, kill 6 amid unrest, 5 August 2024, url

1876

Bdnews24.com, Anti-government protesters attack AL office in Raiganj, kill 6 amid unrest, 5 August 2024, url

1877

UN OHCHR, Human Rights Violations and Abuses Related to the Protests of July and August 2024 in Bangladesh, 12 February 2025, url, para. 212

1878

Prothom Alo, Protestors' huge gathering at Shahbagh, more processions joining, 4 August 2024, url; Dhaka Tribune, Ambulance in BSMMU vandalized, torched as clashes break out in Shahbagh, 4 August 2024, url

1879

Dhaka Tribune, Ambulance in BSMMU vandalized, torched as clash break out in Shahbagh, 4 August 2024, url

1880

UN OHCHR, Human Rights Violations and Abuses Related to the Protests of July and August 2024 in Bangladesh, 12 February 2025, url, para. 195

1881

Prothom Alo, Curfew for indefinite period from 6pm today, 4 August 2024, url

1882

Prothom Alo, At least 97 die across country on a day of carnage, 4 August 2024, url

1883

Prothom Alo, Students Against Discrimination's 'March to Dhaka' on Monday, 4 August 2024, url

1884

Al Jazeera, Bangladesh's Sheikh Hasina forced to resign: What happened and what's next?, 5 August 2024, url

1885

Daily Star (The), A chronicle of the July Uprising, n.d., url

1886

UN OHCHR, Human Rights Violations and Abuses Related to the Protests of July and August 2024 in Bangladesh, 12 February 2025, url, p. ii, para. 52, 198

1887

CIR, Investigating police violence in the deadly Bangladesh quota protests, 5 November 2024, url; Prothom Alo, 326 killed in 4-6 August, 12 August 2024, url; UN OHCHR, Human Rights Violations and Abuses Related to the Protests of July and August 2024 in Bangladesh, 12 February 2025, url, p. 37, para. 123

1888

UN OHCHR, Human Rights Violations and Abuses Related to the Protests of July and August 2024 in Bangladesh, 12 February 2025, url, p. 33

1889

UN OHCHR, Human Rights Violations and Abuses Related to the Protests of July and August 2024 in Bangladesh, 12 February 2025, url, p. 33

1890

Business Standard (The), APBn member arrested for shooting at people during 5 August long march programme, 13 September 2024, url

1891

Somoy TV, Massacre in Ashulia: Chilling eyewitness accounts surface, 2 September 2024, url; Daily Star (The), August 5 violence: Death toll in Savar rises to 36, 8 August 2024, url

1892

UN OHCHR, Human Rights Violations and Abuses Related to the Protests of July and August 2024 in Bangladesh, 12 February 2025, url, p. 34

1893

Prothom Alo, 109 killed in clashes in a single day, 12 August 2024, url

1894

UN OHCHR, Human Rights Violations and Abuses Related to the Protests of July and August 2024 in Bangladesh, 12 February 2025, url, p. 34

1895

Prothom Alo, 109 killed in clashes in a single day, 12 August 2024, url; Daily Star (The), At least 10 killed, over 100 hurt in Uttara East Police Station mayhem, 5 August 2024, url

1896

Prothom Alo, 109 killed in clashes in a single day, 12 August 2024, url; Daily Sun, At least 8 dead, hundreds injured in clash with police in Kushtia, 6 August 2024, url

1897

Prothom Alo, 109 killed in clashes in a single day, 12 August 2024, url; Daily Star (The), 3 killed in Habiganj clash this morning, 5 August 2024, url

1898

Prothom Alo, 109 killed in clashes in a single day, 12 August 2024, url

1899

UN OHCHR, Human Rights Violations and Abuses Related to the Protests of July and August 2024 in Bangladesh, 12 February 2025, url, p. 35; Dhaka Tribune, Disturbing August 5 footage reveals police piling bodies onto van in Savar, 31 August 2024, url; Business Standard (The), Deadly 5 Aug: Unveiling the shocking truth behind the Ashulia carnage, 3 September 2024, url

1900

UN OHCHR, Human Rights Violations and Abuses Related to the Protests of July and August 2024 in Bangladesh, 12 February 2025, url, p. 35

1901

Dhaka Tribune, Disturbing August 5 footage reveals police piling bodies onto van in Savar, 31 August 2024, url

1902

UN OHCHR, Human Rights Violations and Abuses Related to the Protests of July and August 2024 in Bangladesh, 12 February 2025, url, p. 35

1903

HRW, After the Monsoon Revolution, 27 January 2025, url

1904

Reuters, Exclusive: Bangladesh army refused to suppress protest, sealing Hasina's fate, 7 August 2024, url

1905

UN OHCHR, Human Rights Violations and Abuses Related to the Protests of July and August 2024 in Bangladesh, 12 February 2025, url, para. 53

1906

UN OHCHR, Human Rights Violations and Abuses Related to the Protests of July and August 2024 in Bangladesh, 12 February 2025, url, para. 214; Macdonald, G., Bangladesh's Accidental Revolutionaries Topple Sheikh Hasina – What's Next?, USIP, 6 August 2024, url

1907

Prothom Alo, 326 killed in 4-6 August, 12 August 2024, url

1908

UN OHCHR, Human Rights Violations and Abuses Related to the Protests of July and August 2024 in Bangladesh, 12 February 2025, url, para. 54

1909

Prothom Alo, 326 killed in 4-6 August, 12 August 2024, url

1910

Prothom Alo, Houses of ministers, MPs attacked, torched, 5 August 2024, url

1911

Le Monde, Military in control of Bangladesh after prime minister ousted, 6 August 2024, url

1912

Al Jazeera, Bangladeshis dream of a better future after Hasina ousted, 6 August 2024, url

1913

Al Jazeera, Photos: Celebrations after PM Sheikh Hasina resigns, flees Bangladesh, 5 August 2024, url

1914

Business Standard (The), 18 killed after hotel owned by AL leader set on fire in Jashore, 5 August 2024, url

1915

Daily Star (The), 76 killed in attacks, clashes outside capital, 6 August 2024, url

1916

UN OHCHR, Human Rights Violations and Abuses Related to the Protests of July and August 2024 in Bangladesh, 12 February 2025, url, para. 219

1917

UN OHCHR, Human Rights Violations and Abuses Related to the Protests of July and August 2024 in Bangladesh, 12 February 2025, url, para. 216; Bdnews24.com, Four policemen among 7 killed in attack on police station in Noakhali, 6 August 2024, url

1918

UN OHCHR, Human Rights Violations and Abuses Related to the Protests of July and August 2024 in Bangladesh, 12 February 2025, url, para. 216; Bdnews24.com, Four policemen among 7 killed in attack on police station in Noakhali, 6 August 2024, url

1919

UN OHCHR, Human Rights Violations and Abuses Related to the Protests of July and August 2024 in Bangladesh, 12 February 2025, url, para. 214

1920

Netra News, An eye-witness account from inside Jatrabari Police Station of the last bloodbath, 15 January 2025, url

1921

UN OHCHR, Human Rights Violations and Abuses Related to the Protests of July and August 2024 in Bangladesh, 12 February 2025, url, para. 216

1922

Prothom Alo, 326 killed in 4-6 August, 12 August 2024, url

1923

UN OHCHR, Human Rights Violations and Abuses Related to the Protests of July and August 2024 in Bangladesh, 12 February 2025, url, pp. 34–35, para. 125; Daily Star (The), Shot during protest: Many barely hanging on to life, 5 September 2024, url

1924

UN OHCHR, Human Rights Violations and Abuses Related to the Protests of July and August 2024 in Bangladesh, 12 February 2025, url, para. 225; Daily Star (The), 66 dead as city convulsed with violence, 6 August 2024, url

1925

Daily Star (The), 66 dead as city convulsed with violence, 6 August 2024, url

1926

UN OHCHR, Human Rights Violations and Abuses Related to the Protests of July and August 2024 in Bangladesh, 12 February 2025, url, para. 225; Daily Observer, Somoy-Ekattor among 5 television channel offices attacked, 5 August 2024, url

1927

UN OHCHR, Human Rights Violations and Abuses Related to the Protests of July and August 2024 in Bangladesh, 12 February 2025, url, para. 225

1928

Financial Express (The), Consolidation of cultural mooring is sorely missed, 10 August 2024, url