a) Conflict dynamics and main actors

For a general overview on actors in Nigeria, please see section 1.1 Main Actors.

Communal tensions,1606 criminal violence,1607 and gang/cult-related violence were the main drivers of insecurity in Delta state during the reference period.1608 Criminal activities included kidnapping,1609 homicide,1610 robbery and clashes between security forces and 'bandits'.1611

Cult/gang-related violence involved groups such as the Eiye,1612 the Black Axe/Aye,1613 the Vikings1614/Bagger,1615 and the Maphite.1616

Sources reported of communal violence over land between communities in Ughelli South and Bomadi LGAs,1617 in Ughelli North and Ughelli South LGAs,1618 as well as between herders and farmers in Ika South LGA,1619 Ika North-East and Ughelli North LGAs,1620 and – specifically involving Fulani herders – in Ethiope East1621 and Ethiope West1622 LGAs.

1631 In August 2024, four persons were killed in separate incidents in Ughelli North LGA in clashes between Black Axe/Aye and Viking confraternities, reportedly over unpaid debts related to a drug deal. 1632 Sources reported of kidnappings along the Ughelli-Patani road, 1633 and the Eku-Abraka road. 1634

c) State response in maintaining law and order

Punch stated in June 2025 that over the previous three months there had been a 'surge in violent crimes, including kidnappings and killings' across the state, which continued 'unabated'. In reaction to communities' protests, a joint security operation was set up, including 'police officers, local hunters, vigilantes, and anti-cult volunteers'. In the course of the operation, the security forces engaged in a gunfight with suspected kidnappers along the Abraka Railway, reportedly killing four suspects. In another community, women reportedly protested over the disappearance of at least 26 children in the area, claiming that these disappearances continued 'without any clear leads or arrests'.1635
