Learning outcomes & description

DESCRIPTION

The aim of this module is to provide learners with the necessary knowledge and skills to identify indicators of trafficking in human beings, handle an encounter and respond to the needs of potential victims of trafficking in the asylum contexts, in view of safeguarding their rights in line with the CEAS.

This module equips learners with a comprehensive understanding of trafficking in human beings (THB) and its link to international protection. It introduces global and regional THB trends, legal frameworks, and the interplay between THB and asylum. Learners explore the definition of THB, including its core elements, and gain insight into complex issues such as consent and exploitation. The module also develops practical skills in identifying potential victims using indicators and handling encounters with care, focusing on communication and safeguards. Finally, it outlines the rights of potential victims and actions that should be taken to ensure their protection in asylum procedures.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the end of this module, the learner will be able to:

Knowledge

1. Outline the phenomenon, key elements and definition of THB

2. Explain the rights and safeguards applicable to potential victim of THB in line with the EU legal framework on trafficking and asylum

Skills

3. Identify indicators of THB and most common forms of THB in the asylum contexts

4. Explain how to handle an encounter with a potential victim of trafficking

Competence

5. Propose actions based on the needs of potential victims of THB in the asylum contexts in view of safeguarding their rights in line with the relevant EU framework.

DELIVERY METHOD

This module is delivered through a blended learning approach, combining asynchronous online training with a face-to-face session.

ASSESSMENT STRATEGY

The assessment is designed to be authentic to the job tasks related to this module. It consists of an evolving scenario concerning an applicant for international protection who is a potential victim of THB.
